

be wholly in love with her if I stay here. That might not suit you—"

"Does it suit her?" challenged Mr. Ross.

"I think so, I hope so," answered Bert.

"Then go and settle it with her and decide on my offer."

And an hour later Bert had accepted the position, for Elsa had accepted him.

STUFFED ONIONS

Boil large-sized onions until tender, allowing one for each person to be served. When they can be pierced with a fork drain and set aside to cool. Take great care to keep the shape perfect. When cool, with sharp knife remove center. Mix three tablespoons of minced ham, three tablespoons of bread crumbs, one tablespoon of butter, one egg, three tablespoons of milk together. Salt to taste. Fill the space in each onion with the mixture. Put in baking dish. Dot each onion with butter. Add one cup of sweet cream. Sprinkle with bread crumbs. Bake in slow oven half an hour.

WHAT DO YOU MEAN, FARCE?

Hash was a delicacy unknown to the early Romans. When a cook in the kitchen of Julius Caesar tossed a few "left overs" together, he peppered it and salted it and served as "far-cire." The dish was never known outside of Rome, but the word traveled over to France, and some time about the 15th century French dramatists began applying the word, which literally means "stuffed," to a certain kind of grotesque comedy. The English adopted it and now it has universal currency as applied to a form of theatrical entertainment which has no plot, but is "stuffed" with fun and music and spiced with wit.

"Mrs. Muchwed has certainly had a very diversified life." "You mean divorce-ified."—Boston Transcript.

GROWS INTO HEART OF PUBLIC AS SHE GROWS UP IN WORK

Eleanor Kahn

Eleanor Kahn is one of the little girls of the moving picture world who has grown into the business and into the hearts of the public at one and the same time. She belongs to the eastern company of the Essanay players.

PLENTY

Counsel—I'm sorry I couldn't do more for you.

Convicted Client—Don't mention it, guy-nor; ain't five years enough?

Miss Jennie Butts, an aged spinster in Ithaca, N. Y., has 27 cats, 13 cows and 3 horses.